Have someone print some of your friends' names so you can trace them. They are children of God too!

Handwriting practice lines consisting of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line, repeated multiple times.

Read this with me:

Jesus once said, "Let the children come to me." Our Lord holds a special place in his heart for you, his child. He knows you inside and out. He made you! He loves to see you grow and learn, and he wants to hear from you every day. How do you talk to Jesus? Pray! Take time each day to thank him for all he has given you: your family, your friends, your home, your toys. Tell him your worries and your joys. Jesus loves to hear you sing too. Start with this song!

Dear one, you are a child of God.

Matthew 19:14

Thinking Time

If you are a child of God, does that make God your father? Who else is his child?

Can you talk to God on a telephone?

Can a song be a prayer?

Finish drawing what this child is doing:

Here are some sight words to find and circle in this book:

you who what do go

These are some tricky words!

They are hard to sound out, so you just have to know them when you see them.

Trace the sight word Mr. Owl says, and then print it on the lines below:
